Dear Parent

It has been great working with parents who have attended the Parents Forum meetings this year. I have really appreciated your honesty and contributions which have been very helpful. Rather than meeting again this term, I am proposing that we meet early in September in order to present to you some of the new policies we have discussed regarding:

- Homework
- Rewards
- Reports

In the meantime, I am happy to hear from parents concerning individual issues, related to the areas discussed at the Parents Forum meetings, which rest outside of our normal communication channels.

Whilst writing, I can confirm that Wednesday 19th July, the last day this year that students will attend, will be a normal school day and will finish at 3pm.
