

Subject Information      Options 2015-17

Below is useful information from departments that should be used to help choose your option subjects. If you require any further information please speak to the member of staff responsible for the subject.

Option Subjects

		Subject
		Religious Studies
	Exam Board	AQA
	Syllabus number	4050
	Member of staff responsible	Mr C Wood
	Accreditation	GCSE
Exam Information	How many?	2 - each 1 ½ hours
	When taken?	Summer of Year 11
	Percentage of final mark	100%
Coursework Information	How many?	None
	When taken?
	Percentage of final mark
Controlled Assignment Information	How many?	None
	When taken?
	Percentage of final mark
Brief outline of subject		Students following this course will look at two sections <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Moral issues such as war, abortion and prejudice from religious and non-religious points of view.</li> <li>b. Ultimate questions. Students will consider questions such as belief in God, the relationship between religion and science, miracles and the problem of evil.</li> </ol>
Characteristic of students who succeed in this subject		This subject is open to all. A willingness to develop and argue your own opinions as well as to try to understand the ideas of others is very important.
Relevant information that may be important		We live in a multi-cultural society and the issues raised by RE are important to all. This subject is suitable for students from any religion or none at all.
Advisory Entry Level Requirements		Religious Studies does require at times a willingness to write extended answers to questions.